LOOK WHAT YOU ACHIEVED IN 2018:

❧ Sustained No Kill Charleston for the sixth year! Charleston Animal Society built the first No Kill Community in the Southeast in 2013.

❧ Earned top-rated nonprofit in the state six years in a row. Number one out of 22,000 in South Carolina.

❧ Since the formation of our No Kill South Carolina initiative, funded by Petco Foundation, almost 20,000 more lives have been saved. Organized the first statewide adoption event that resulted in 1,188 lives saved.

❧ Led South Carolina's disaster response for animals during Hurricane Florence. We also responded to hurricanes in North Carolina and Florida.

❧ Launched Charleston County's first rural veterinary outreach program: Helping Hands for Rural Paws. The Charleston Animal Society model is now being replicated in Kentucky and Oklahoma. Funded by WaterShed Animal Fund, Helping Hands for Rural Paws deploys the Simon Greer Mobile Spay-Neuter Clinic to rural communities across Charleston County.
